Solicitors Report: Nothing that required action.

Public Comments: Gary Eby questioned the reason for the half million dollar increase to the New Visions Inc. contract.

Karen Anderson asked if the interviews had been completed for the Chief Fiscal Officer position and whether the candidates met the job description requirements. Ms. Anderson commented that the candidates should meet the requirements set forth in the job description.

Sarah Keller indicated that any issues regarding RabbitTransit can be directed to Senator DiSanto's office for assistance and his office is willing to reach out to Rich Farr if needed.

Frank Campbell commented the Commissioners had initiated the change from PCTA to RabbitTransit and then it went to the PCTA Board for further action. He also stated that during the recent public meeting with RabbitTransit only 8 people attended and the issue a citizen experienced had been resolved during the meeting.

Gary Eby commented that the public meeting with RabbitTransit was in the local newspapers the day of the meeting which may have contributed to the low turnout of individuals.

Comments from Press: None

Commissioner Naylor made a motion to adjourn at 10:22 a.m. Commissioner Rudy seconded the motion. Motion carried.
